

Arthur J. Zarone, class of 1980, graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1984 and earned a Master of Science Degree from the National War College in 2003.

After graduating from West Point, Mr. Zarone was commissioned as an Infantry Officer. He served in the 4th Infantry Division in Fort Carson, Colorado and the 2nd Ranger Battalion in Fort Lewis, Washington. While in the military, he earned the U.S. Army Airborne Badge, Expert Infantryman Badge and Ranger Tab.

Mr. Zarone entered the FBI in 1991 and assigned to the Albany Division where he investigated a variety of criminal matters. He was reassigned to the FBI's Hostage Rescue Team in 1994 and was deployed to Kosovo in support of the International War Crimes Tribunal. In 2001, Mr. Zarone was assigned to the Counterterrorism Division where he supervised al Qaeda and Hizballah investigations.

Currently, Mr. Zarone serves as the Senior Federal Bureau of Investigation representative to the Commander, Joint Special Operations Command often traveling to Afghanistan.