

Kimberly A. Kalajainen, class of 1986, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics with minors in Economics and Management from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1990 and a Master of Science Degree in Managing Information Technology and Innovation from Champlain College in 2004.

Ms. Kalajainen is currently a Vice President and Chief Information Officer for Lawrence & Memorial Hospital. Prior to her current position, Ms. Kalajainen was the Chief Information Officer at the Rutland Regional Medical Center in Vermont. In addition, Ms. Kalajainen spent 10 years in information technology with Andersen Consulting and Arthur Anderson Business Consulting.

Ms. Kalajainen is a chairperson in the Connecticut Hospital Association's Chief Information Officer Work Group and was appointed to the State of Connecticut Allied Health Workforce Policy Board.

Ms. Kalajainen has published several articles regarding information management and was the recipient of Modern Healthcare's "Up & Comers" award in 2008. In addition, Ms. Kalajainen was a nominee for the Connecticut Technology Council's "Women in Technology" award in 2008.