

Nathan Proch, class of 1981, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Design from the University of Cincinnati in 1987. While obtaining his degree, Mr. Proch completed internships at the Chrysler Design Center in Michigan and the Chrysler Advanced Concept Studio in California.

Throughout his impressive career, Mr. Proch has experience in designing aerospace robotics, entrepreneurship, television show design, and most recently named the Director of Design for Hot Wheels.

In addition, Mr. Proch has earned many awards during his career including the Hot Wheels Design Award, Best 1:64 Diecast Line, and most notably he received recognition for his design of the Deora II.

Mr. Proch has been recognized in numerous publications and has been the Key presenter at conferences around the globe. Also, Mr. Proch has given back to the community through the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Dream Halloween, and the Ronald McDonald House.