

Richard A Papa, class of 1966, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 1970, and a medical degree from Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1974. He completed his residency at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in 1977.

Dr. Papa is currently a well-respected pediatrician that runs a private practice in the New Castle area. Previously, Dr. Papa worked for St. Francis Health Systems and has served in a variety of capacities as a pediatrician for twenty years in the Army.

He is a retired, Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army. While in the Army, he earned several awards including the Army Achievement Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, and the Meritorious Service Medal.

Dr. Papa belongs to several medical societies including the Pennsylvania Medical Society, the American Academy of Pediatrics, and served on the Board of Directors for the Red Cross.