

William Smith, class of 1979, earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Applied Mathematics from Carnegie Mellon University in 1983 and a Masters of Science Degree in Information Science from the University of Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bill has over 32 years of experience in the engineering and management of software intensive systems, and is one of the country's best-known and most highly regarded CMMI trainers. Currently, he is the President and CEO of Leading Edge Process Consultants, a small CMMI Institute Partner in Vienna, Virginia.

Being an accomplished speaker at industry conferences, Bill won the Outstanding Presentation Award multiple times, was named the Software Engineering Institute "Outstanding Member Representative" and most recently was one of ten people profiled in the 2016 book "Tickers: What Makes People Tick and Pursue a Career They Love" by Kim Eley.

Bill is a member of the American Society for Quality, the American Society for Training and Development, and the Project Management Institute.