

Kenneth H. Workman, class of 1979, earned a Bachelor of Architecture Degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1985.

Mr. Workman is currently an Associate with RWA Architects in Cincinnati, OH and Co-Chair of the Cincinnati Custom Residential Architects Network.

Throughout his career, Mr. Workman has received numerous awards and recognition as a project architect or lead designer including the National Association of Home Builders for American Living Award and the American Remodeling Award. In 1988, he earned the Builder's Choice Award for Builder Magazine and has recently won multiple awards from the Congress of Residential Architecture. In addition, Mr. Workman's projects have been featured in The New York Times Magazine, The Robb Report, Cincinnati Magazine and Better Homes & Gardens.

Mr. Workman also has a passion for community service as he serves on the Board of Trustees at Mother of Mercy High School and is the Commission Chair for Our Lady of Lourdes Education Commission.