

ACT 153 – Child Protective Services Law

Written Affirmation for Volunteers

One exception to the FBI fingerprint requirements applies to VOLUNTEERS. If the volunteer has been a PA resident for 10 years prior to application, and swears by written affirmation that he or she is not disqualified due to a conviction for any crime listed in the Child Protective Services Law (see List of Reportable Offenses), the FBI fingerprint requirement is not required. The Child Abuse and Criminal History clearances are still required.
